

INTERNET PRIVACY POLICY

Visitors to our web pages remain anonymous while using the services offered through www.datcu.org. Email addresses are gathered for internal use only when we are e-mailed, and they are not shared with any outside sources.

The Credit Union does not sell or disclose any non-public information gathered through its website, member applications, or email requests.

LINKS

We offer links on our website to other sites. We assume no responsibility for these sites. We provide these links for informational purposes, and as a courtesy and convenience to our members. When you visit any of these sites, you should review their Privacy Policy before sharing any information.

PROTECTING CHILDREN'S INFORMATION PRIVACY

DATCU's site is not structured to attract children under the age of 13. Protecting the privacy of our member's children is very important to us. While there may be information or links that are relevant to children, parental consent and assistance should be used when making use of these links. We do not knowingly gather or solicit any information from children, nor do we provide any information to third parties.

PROTECTING YOUR INFORMATION ON THE INTERNET

You should never share or disclose account information, social security numbers, passwords, personal financial information on any website that you do not recognize or fully trust.

Should you have any questions about this Policy or features in our website, contact DATCU at (940) 387-8585 or Toll-Free at (866) 387-8585.
